

Financial Education Books for Teens & Young Adults

100 Days of Money & Financial Literacy* by Humble Math

Learn about earning, spending and managing money; compound and simple interest; credit and debt; saving and investing; business basics and more in this workbook.

The Essential Money Skills Handbook for Teens* by Richard Meadows

With real life examples of teens conquering the cash game, a guide to securing scholarships or grants and three tactics to nurture a money-master mindset, it's never too early to start mastering money-management skills.

How to Adult: Personal Finance for the Real World* by Jake Cousineau

Prepare for the financial realities of adulthood. Each chapter contains straightforward explanations, practical examples, revealing anecdotes and hands-on tools that will help you jump-start your personal financial journey.

How to Money: Your Ultimate Visual Guide to the Basics of Finance* by Jean Chatzky and Kathryn Tuggle

With easy-to-understand concepts about money and graphics, this full-color, illustrated guidebook breaks down the basics of money – how to earn it, manage it and use it – giving you all the tools you need to take charge and be fearless with personal finance.

The Money Club* by Jasmine Brown

Switching up even the most daunting of topics with entertaining stories and real-life inspired classroom scenarios, The Money Club offers practical advice and open conversation on every aspect of money and money management.

A Teenager's Guide to Investing in the Stock Market* by Luke Villermin

The average American waits until age 31 to begin saving and investing for retirement and ends up with over $2 million less saved because of it. This book helps potential young investors gain inspiration and confidence to start saving and investing.