

GIVE YOURSELF A GIFT

Give Yourself a Gift

The winter holiday season is in full swing, and with Thanksgiving in just a few days, now is a great time to get the word out about unclaimed property and the Great Iowa Treasure Hunt. We want Iowans to know the Great Iowa Treasure Hunt is truly a feast. With assets such as forgotten savings accounts, unused gift cards, contents of abandoned safe deposit boxes and lost stocks in the database, there's a chance you could stumble upon a holiday treat for yourself - especially with new names getting added each day as we process reports.

Many people think they know the exact location of their money and assets at all times, but they are shocked when they discover their unclaimed property has been reported to the Great Iowa Treasure Hunt. In fact, my office is currently holding over $440 million that is waiting to be claimed by past and present Iowans. One in 10 people have unclaimed property owed to them, so there is a chance you, or someone you know, will have assets in our safekeeping.
